Wainbridge and Harrods Estates

It has been a pleasure working with a developer such as Wainbridge, completely dedicated to the pursuit of excellence and achieving the highest possible standards of execution in terms of design and craftsmanship.

Above all, Wainbridge understands its market. As an agent, it's refreshing to find a developer who anticipates the desires and expectations of even the most demanding clients.

Each Wainbridge project offers the ultimate in bespoke interior design complete with original pieces of sculpture and art work of a quality which reflects the lifestyle of the buyers.

This attention to detail is mirrored in the level of service provided by the concierge and property management teams who look after the buildings and residents.

It is also evident from way in which potential buyers are treated from the start, with courtesy and respect – there being an implicit understanding that this is just the beginning of a positive and happy long term relationship. These are values which we recognise at Harrods and Harrods Estates and we look forward to continuing our partnership with Wainbridge.
